CANNING CAPERS

Canning not only won a double on Sunday but combined footy with the annual "swim-thru Canning". Swallow dives were executed by Jake McQuade and Trunkie Noble, while a spot of water-skiing was enjoyed by others. The water content of Dynamo Dann's jersey would be about two gallons.

Brian Cooper practically needed an operation to remove the club dressing gown. However, many were the willing hands to assist him out to replace George Fogarty. Grievous bodily harm was caused to "Big George" by one of his "mates". It is preferred that they even their score with the social secretary off the field.

Artful Dodger Macca was smartly off the mark when a well-known opponent decided to occupy the same slice of land.

It is hoped Don Atwell's face is red, stripped twice and stayed warm and dry, and no protests. Conky Ward, with his two goals, contributed in the seconds, and Sparks Treasurer, with his two majors in the league, had themselves a ball.

John Hilton will soon finish up with more "dilly bags" than the club, as he appears to be making a collection of them; are they to add to the shirt he has been putting on the "donkeys" recently?

Battler Bosio was a dinkum mud-lark on Sunday and showed his liking for wet weather conditions.

Squizzy Taylor has been watching TV. Did you cop the whirly-birds action at one stage of the match.

John Grantham has a flair for changing the appearance of goal cards more effectively than anyone else.

Bill Kersley, who is to be seen doing a Ben-Hur on a Saturday night, was not in the best of company in this instance.

LOST PROPERTY

Frank Rogers, trainer for Mandurah, reports having left a pair of trousers at Gosnells after the match Mandurah versus Gosnells. Frank is anxious to regain possession of his "duds" and would welcome any knowledge of their whereabouts.

Brian Walker, of Kenwick, too, reports that Kenwick club cannot locate the whereabouts of a glad-stone bag containing one pair football boots, 4 pairs socks, 2 pairs shorts, bicycle pump, etc., etc. They disappeared on the occasion of the Kenwick versus Mandurah match at the Canning Agricultural Ground. The club would welcome the return of this property.

TWO PLAYERS SUSPENDED

Two seconds players, B. Oheir (Kenwick) and F. Putland (Mandurah) were suspended for three playing dates last week.

Both were reported by central umpire F. Power in the Mandurah versus Kenwick match at the Canning Agricultural Ground on Sunday, August 26.

Oheir was charged with having disputed the umpire's decision and Putland with having allegedly struck Oheir.

The Protests and Disputes Board sat at Mundijong to hear the charges.

KELMSCOTT RELISH MUDDY CONDITIONS

Relishing the muddy conditions at the Canning Agricultural Ground last Sunday, Kelmscott displayed a surprisingly good brand of football to easily defeat Kenwick 17.13 to 3.2.

This was the highest score amassed by any one team in the S.S.M.F. League matches on the day.

Kenwick achieved best scoring results in the second quarter, adding 2.1, which Kelmscott equalled.

Kelmscott held decided supremacy in the third and fourth quarters, despite determined efforts on the part of the home team.

Kenwick's best players were E. Philp, D. Giblett and P. Goudge.

Goal kickers were B. Ockwell 2, D. Giblett 1.

The seconds match was played in near gale-force winds, which to some extent kept the scores on both sides down to Kenwick 3.6, Kelmscott 2.7.

Kenwick: Best players, S. McArthur, M. White and R. Newey.

Goal kickers: L. Woodland, R. Mills and B. Howard 1 each.

UNINTERESTING MATCH

Continuous rain, a wet ball, waterlogged ground and an overgrowth of Guildford grass were factors which made the Mandurah versus Hills football fixture at Dwellingup one of the most uninteresting games witnessed this season.

With the exception of spasmodic passages of open football, the standard of play rarely reached that expected of league teams.

Under dry conditions, both teams would have been able to lift the game to far greater heights.

Mandurah was first to attack and Butt's point opened their account, but it was not long before Coleman goaled for Hills.

Watts to Renfrey realised Mandurah's second major in the second quarter, giving the seashiders a two-point lead—2.3 to 2.1. The visitors had a seven-point lead at half time.

Mandurah's pressure in the third quarter yielded them another four minors before Renfrey bundled through another full-pointer.

Then came two Hills' attacks and L. Graham to G. Hall brought up their third goal and first score for some 45 minutes.

After three points, Scott made amends with a sure goal and at the last change, which was made without pause, the scores read: Mandurah 5.10, Hills 3.1.

The final term was played in dusk-like conditions, in which Hills were unable to overcome the sufficient but slender lead held by Mandurah.

Quarter scores:

KELMSCOTT SAYS CONDITIONS "B-A-D"

Although conditions were as bad as was possible to imagine, Kelmscott's kicking for goal. Scoring 17.13 recorded a comfortable win over Kenwick.

A feature of the game was Kelmscott's kicking for goal. Scoring 7.13 was an excellent effort, especially following the 13 points straight under dry conditions the previous week.

Best players were Walsh, Polosso, Bosustow, Fancote, Trump and Ennis.

Principal goal kickers were Fancote, Caporn and Turkington 3 each.

The seconds went down to Kenwick by five points after a hard struggle.

Best players were Frank Smith (club award), Newell, Carmody, Bartley and McKay.

The under-15 side won their way into the grand final with a good win over Gosnells. Best players were Thomas, Barker, Taylor and A. and T. Castafaro.

Juniors please note that after the grand final on Saturday, September 8, there will be a luncheon for players and officials at 1 p.m. in the Kelmscott Hall. All parents and supporters are cordially invited to attend and donations of cakes, etc., would be most welcome.

Glad to see Bernie Tognolini at the Kenwick game—hope he will be fit for the final round.

Injured players' coach, "Sonny" Maffina and Don Buckingham are on the mend and hope to be with us for the finals.

FIRST SEMI-FINALS UMPIRES

Owing to injuries sustained in an accident, central umpire Bert Sampson will be unable to officiate in the first league semi-final at Pinjarra on September 9.

His place will be taken by D. Bowker.

Ray Cribb will have charge of the seconds semi-final on that day.

PLAYER REPORTED

Waroona player, R. Taylor, was reported by central umpire, R. Quade-Smith, in last Sunday's league match at the Waroona ground.

Taylor was charged with having used abusive language and with having disputed the umpire's decision. The charges were down for hearing by the Protests and Disputes Board at Mundijong on Wednesday night.

GOSNELLS SECURE

Placed eighth last year, Gosnells have played themselves into the minor premiership position at the head of the South Suburban-Murray Football League 1962 competition.

Kelmscott, in second place, appear to be their most serious rivals for the coveted pennant.

Most serious opposition to either contender is expected to come from Canning, which won both the league and seconds pennants last year.

Mandurah is still "knocking on the door" for fourth place, but Maddington must be defeated by Hills today to give the seashiders even the slightest chance to oust the Maroons.

Even if this result did eventuate, Mandurah would need to beat Armadale by a wide margin at Rushton Park to gain sufficient percentage to clinch the much-sought-after fourth position—and another chance to gain premiership honours.

It is of particular interest to repeat last season's top four placings in both the league and seconds competition.

League: Canning 68 points, Mandurah 52, Armadale 48, Maddington 46.

Seconds: Canning (unbeaten) 72, Gosnells 64, Maddington, Kenwick each 48.

KENWICK NOTES

The annual dinner and presentation of trophies will be held at the Canning Agricultural Hall on Saturday, September 22. Dinner commences 5.45 p.m. to be followed by a cabaret dance at 8 p.m.

Reminder: Cabaret dance on September 8, at the Agricultural Hall. Everyone welcome, good band, good floor.

The club would like to wish the under-18 team "all the best" in the final round and hope they can bring the pennant back to the club.

THE HAWKS' REPORT

Congratulations to Eric Martin on winning the award for the fairest and best player against Maddington, also to Ron Fitzgerald, who turned in a good performance for the seconds.

The last of our home games was played last Sunday, and the club extends its thanks to all those hard workers who helped to make these matches a financial success.

Particular thanks go to Mrs. Passmore, who arranged sandwiches, etc., for the players and supporters to eat at our functions after the games. We wouldn't be surprised to see Mrs. Passmore enter the catering business; she has certainly gained enough experience this season.

It's been a lucky week for players, among them being Don Ibbs, Kevin and Noel O'Connell, winners of the various fund-raising efforts.

We thank Mr. C. Smith for his generous donation to the club, also for his help towards players' teas during the season.

After his accident, Ray Rayment spent a few days in hospital. We are happy to see him back in the fold once more.

Our best wishes go to young Peter Passmore, who received a nasty cut above the eye when he fell in the club rooms last Sunday.

SEASIDE "SOUNDINGS"

Mandurah club secretary, Ron Scott, who is on holidays, but will return for the weekend (and today), states that the social and barbecue are still on after the Armadale match. Venue is the club rooms and an enjoyable time is assured.

Both league and seconds teams were short of players at Dwellingup, where it just rained and rained.

Erwin Young relished the wet going, but he objected strongly when a Hills' player left him floundering in a waterhole.

Dixie Scott was off the big target with the wet ball—three points before he notched a major.

Keith Kay found the atmosphere much colder when his shorts suffered disaster at the hands of an enthusiastic timber worker.

"Rusty" Renfrey displayed carnival form in almost "swim-thru" conditions; he turned on the best game on the ground.

Team mate, Bill Watts, despite a head plaster, gave Mandurah plenty of drive.

Greg Rush went on late, paid the penalty, got dumped in one of the deepest pools.

HILLS WIN FIFTH MATCH

Gaining an early lead, Hills defeated Mandurah to win their fifth seconds fixture, 7.18 to 7.3, at Dwellingup last Sunday.

The match progressed under worsening conditions, which had a very marked effect on the standard of play.

Hills held the scoring advantage at half time and, although the visitors made up some leeway in the third quarter, it was not sufficient to promise a win in the final term.

The home team failed to score a goal in the fourth quarter, but their repeated attacks brought them another six points as against Mandurah's single major.

Quarter scores:

HILLS

2.4 3.5 2.3 0.6 Final 7.18
(60 points)

MANDURAH

2.0 3.1 1.1 1.1 Final 7.3
(45 points)

Best players: Hills, F. Postans, C. Watts, G. Gedling; Mandurah, R. Powell, N. Jewell, A. Jamieson.

Goal kickers: Hills, F. Postans 3, M. Ladley, H. Harp, C. Watts, I. Carter 1 each; Mandurah, R. Powell 3, R. Stone, A. and I. Jamieson and N. Jewell 1 each.

CENTRAL UMPIRE INJURED

Central umpire, A. (Bert) Sampson, was unable to officiate at Dwellingup last Sunday because of an accident.

Sampson was rostered to take charge of the league fixture between Mandurah and Hills.

As a result, Gordon Philp umpired both the seconds and league fixtures, which was an unenviable task. It rained throughout both matches.
